Friday 17th June 2022

Dear Parents and Carers,

The children in Upper Key Stage Two had a great time at Eden Camp this week. They looked absolutely fantastic as they all dressed as evacuees before leaving for a fun filled day emersing themselves in what life was like during WWII.

A huge well done to our Year 4 children who completed their multiplication check this week – you were all superstars!

We have a huge amount of lost property within school, the majority of which is unnamed. This will be placed outside the school office after school every afternoon next week. Please come and have a look and see if you can give any item a new home!

We have welcomed Miss Mensah to school this week! Miss Mensah is our new behaviour and attendance officer and will be supporting families to ensure that we meet our whole school attendance target as well as working closely with Mrs Stringwell to offer pastoral support in school.

Reading club is now running every lunch time in our beautiful reading garden. This club is open to all children every lunch time and there are a range of books and story telling props for the children to enjoy.

Have a wonderful weekend!
Mrs K Mason
Headteacher

The Headteacher is the designated person for all child protection issues
